GOLD HILL NEWS

From the Pastor

If you have not heard yet, I have been elected as the new bishop of the Montana Synod. This means that I will be departing Gold Hill as its interim pastor earlier than expected. While my first day as bishop is not until September 1, 2019, I will need a month to move to Great Falls, get settled, and hopefully get some much needed vacation time in during August before beginning my challenging role as bishop. I also will be attending the Churchwide assembly Aug. 4-10. Consequently, my last Sunday at Gold Hill will be July 28.

Things are already in process for the Transition Team to finish its work (in mid-July), for the Call Committee to begin its work (in early August), and for a short-term interim minister to be put in place until you call a new pastor. Only God can predict how long that will take, but please don't let your anxiety over this unexpected change push you into moving too quickly or making unhealthy decisions.

You have come so far in the past year, and the good news is you know the new bishop pretty well. And she knows you and wants God's best for you. So I ask you to trust in the Spirit's working at Gold Hill and in the process that is already happening. For "we know that all things work together for good for those who love God who are called according to God's purpose." (Rm 8:16)

Vacation Bible School (VBS) Day Camp

Vacation Bible School is going to be June 24th - 27th with Gloria Dei here at Gold Hill from 9:00 am to 1:30 pm daily. There are many volunteer opportunities available to help, including housing camp counselors, planning activities for them in conjunction with junior high and high school youth in the evenings, and possibly some meal planning. We will need helpers, pre-school teachers, craft instructors, and kitchen help in both labor and food capacities.

Please let Julie Corbin know how you are able to help by calling 490-2814 or you can email her at juliecorbin5@gmail.com. Registration forms are available at the church.

Patriotic Quilt Show

Don't miss this opportunity to see the many beautiful quilts that will be given to our veterans. The show is June 16th (that's Sunday!) from 10 am to 4 pm at the World Museum of Mining. And admission is free!
